ACCESS AND EQUITY

COLLEGE PLANNING COHORTS™

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 11, 2021

10:00 AM - 12:00 NOON

ZOOM MEETING ID: 884 7893 8939

Our December cohort meeting will provide insight into competitive college admissions; the unique opportunities for high performing lower income and first generation students; how applicants are evaluated; and the impact of recommendation letters and personal essays.

Note: Attendance is only opened to registered students and parents and school district partners: Florence School District 3 (SC) and Pinellas County Schools (FL). Otherwise, you may request a guest pass by emailing: info@accessandequity.org no later than midnight November 12, 2021.

GUEST SPEAKER

STEPHANIE GONZALEZ

Associate Director of College Counseling

Stephanie Gonzalez is currently an Associate Director of College Counseling at Trinity School in New York. Prior to college counseling, Steph spent a decade working in admissions and student affairs at Williams College and Boston University, her alma mater. She is currently pursuing a Ph.D. in Education at George Washington University.

Steph will provide insight into competitive college admissions; how students of color and those from lower income families can make themselves competitive applicants for selective colleges and universities; how applications are evaluated; and the impact of recommendation letters.
